ROCO presents Peter and the Wolf at The Children's Museum Performances of the children's classic will be presented in English and Spanish

On April 25th, 2010, River Oaks Chamber Orchestra (ROCO) will present a bilingual performance of the children's classic, Peter and the Wolf, in partnership with The Children's Museum. The story, whose original intent was to "cultivate musical tastes in children from the first years of school," still delights and entertains. A small ensemble of ROCO musicians will play Prokofiev's composition while actors from InterActive Theater Company, narrate and act out the story, first in English, and a second time in Spanish. This performance will be part of the bicentennial celebration of Mexico's independence and celebrates the Day of the Child.

Free with museum admission.

About ROCO

The River Oaks Chamber Orchestra is a professional chamber orchestra of 40 all-star musicians, distinguished conductors, and famous composers, who come together from all over the world to present unexpected classics, original compositions, and delightful performances that dissolve the barriers between audience and orchestra. Founded in 2005 by principal oboist, Alecia Lawyer, ROCO is "creating personal relationships through the language of music." www.rocohouston.org
