ROCO Violinist, Maureen Nelson in Concert, March 4th, 2012

Part of a series: ROCO Chamber Concerts hosted by Gremillion & Co Fine Art

ROCO violinist, Maureen Nelson, will present a chamber concert on Sunday afternoon, March 4th, 4:00pm, at Gremillion & Co. Fine Art, 2501 Sunset.

Maureen keeps a busy touring schedule with engagements both across the US and abroad. She is a founding member and first violinist of the Grammy-nominated Enso String Quartet, which formed while Maureen earned her Master's degree at Yale University. A two-time winner of the Greenfield Competition, Maureen appeared as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra both in 1990 and 1991, and has since enjoyed international success as a chamber musician, soloist and orchestral player.

This chamber concert is part of a new series this season. Gremillion & Co. Fine Art and River Oaks Chamber Orchestra have teamed up to feature individual ROCO musicians in intimate concerts at Gremillion & Co. Fine Art Annex. All performances are casual, interactive events on Sunday afternoons, at 4:00, with a reception before and during the concert hosted by Pisco Porton. Admission is free and valet parking will be available.
