Club ROCO combines Concert Experience with Fun and Games for Tweens and Teens

River Oaks Chamber Orchestra (ROCO) is proud to announce a new program for 2010, Club ROCO, bridging the gap for tweens and teens, and allowing the whole family to explore the world of music. Kids ages 10-14 will attend the full ROCO concert with their families, then have a chance to meet ROCO's musicians before enjoying an evening of pizza and games while parents enjoy a night out.

Club ROCO will run in tandem with all Saturday evening concerts at The Church of St. John the Divine, beginning with the Conductorless! Concert featuring Simone Dinnerstein, piano soloist, on Saturday, February 13th, 2010 at 5pm. American pianist Simone Dinnerstein has fast been gaining international attention since making a triumphant New York recital debut at Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall in 2005. The New York Times called her, "An utterly distinctive voice in the forest of Bach interpretation." The Conductorless! program will feature Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, Chinese composer Chen Yi's Shuo, and Miss Dinnerstein playing Bach's Piano concerto in d Minor.

Reservations for Club ROCO are $20 for the first registration and $15 for each additional registration, and include a student ticket to the concert and pizza and games following the concert. Club ROCO can be combined with ROCORooters to receive the multi-child preregistration discount. For reservations, call (713) 665-2700 or visit www.rocohouston.org. Club ROCO may also be purchased at the door for $25 per child.
