

For Immediate Release

October 30, 2009, Houston, TX

ROCO features principal clarinetist, Nathan Williams, in a “Wine and Music Tasting” event, January 26th

Great music, fine wine and good company – that’s “ROCO company,” or ROCOCO. River Oaks Chamber Orchestra hosts several “music tastings” each season. These popular events are held in wine cellars or tasting rooms, feature individual ROCO soloists, and pair music with wine or beer and food in a lively, intimate setting.

On January 26th, 2010, we’ll feature principal clarinetist, Nathan Williams, along with French Bordeaux wines. Austin-based clarinetist, Nathan Williams, is widely regarded as “a stellar musician, capable of the most exquisite and expressive playing.” He has appeared as concerto soloist throughout the United States, and in Austria, Canada, China, Italy, Israel, Hungary, Germany, Japan, Taiwan, the Netherlands, and the Czech Republic. In addition to being an acclaimed performer, Nathan is Assistant Professor of Clarinet at The University of Texas in Austin.

Tickets are $40 per person. Reservations are required.

About ROCO

The River Oaks Chamber Orchestra is a professional chamber orchestra of 40 all-star musicians, distinguished conductors, and famous composers, who come together from all over the world to present unexpected classics, original compositions, and delightful performances that dissolve the barriers between audience and orchestra. Founded in 2005 by principal oboist, Alecia Lawyer, ROCO is “creating personal relationships through the language of music.” www.rocohouston.org
